Types of membership

African Data Centre Operators

As a datacentre operator company, you will be entitled to our complete range of services. Africa Data Centre Association will only admit organisations with sound financial histories. If required, references from bankers, customers and suppliers may be requested.

Suppliers and Non-African Data Center Operators, Partners

Whilst not a datacentre operator company, partners have parallel interests and objectives to those of the association. They include, but are not limited to suppliers, recruitment agencies, and law firms. You will be entitled to our complete range of services. Africa Data Centre Association will only admit organisations with sound financial histories.

Membership fees

The membership fee is calculated based on the number of countries of operation. The table opposite shows a subset of fees. The membership fee is an annual subscription. To obtain an accurate quote please contact the membership department membership@africadca.org.

Agreement

If elected, we agree to abide by African Actors of Data Centre Association's objectives and regulations as stated in the Memorandum and Articles of Association, to observe ADCA's code of conduct and to pay subscriptions when due. Should your application for membership be accepted, you will be notified in writing of your Admission and Subscription Dates. The anniversary of your Admission Date, or such other date as may be specifically agreed by the Board of the ADCA, will be your Subscription Date. Should you wish to withdraw from membership during your first year of membership, notice in writing must be given before your subscription date, failing which you will continue to be a member until the following Subscription Date. After your first year of membership, three months' notice in writing must be given in advance of your next Subscription Date, failing which you will continue to be a member until the following Subscription Date. Africa Actors of Data Centres Association (trading as 'ADCA') is a non-profit organisation registered in Cote d'Ivoire with number 1118. Copies of the Memorandum and Articles of Association are available on the website and upon request to the Membership Department of ADCA. To read the Memorandum and Articles of Association visit www.africadca.org.
